Nestled on Thomas Street in the charming town of Portadown, Craigavon, this end-terrace house, built in 1919, presents a remarkable opportunity for investors and those seeking a project. With a generous layout featuring two reception rooms and four bedrooms, this property offers ample space for a family or the potential for a House in Multiple Occupation (HMO).

While the interior requires refurbishment, it is priced to reflect the necessary work, making it an attractive option for those looking to add value. The property boasts a good-sized rear yard, complete with a shed, providing additional outdoor space for relaxation or storage.

This home, steeped in character from the early 20th century, is ideally situated in a vibrant community, close to local amenities and transport links. With a little vision and effort, this property could be transformed into a stunning residence or a profitable investment. Don't miss the chance to explore the potential that this property holds.
